Helping Mashadi Families Navigate and Cope with Economic Challenges

Partners in Caring staff will assist individuals and families coping with a variety of crises by providing them with concrete assistance that helps them to improve their functioning, move out of crisis, and regain stability.

Clients will be assisted with:

- Entitlement benefits counseling;
- Access to concrete assistance including Medicaid and food stamps;
- Linkages to services within F·E·G·S and other community based agencies.

Tuesday February 5, 2013
